Business Summary

This restaurant has been providing some of the best food and service for 19 years. During the 2002 Olympics, the restaurant was able to increase revenue and touch the international market by adding lunch services to the normal dinner services for that period. It has a central location with plenty of on-site parking. Breakfast and lunch service could be added to generate additional revenue. The restaurant has shown consistent growth over the years and has a full liquor license.
